Army of German crown prince: Renewed enemy attacks northwest of Chateau Thierry and counter-attacks to recover the line lost on the Ardre only brought him unimportant gains of territory. Several attacks by French, American and British regiments broke down with heavy losses.

STEADY GROWTH IN U.S. MERCHANT MARINE REVEALED

687 Vessels Have Been Built Since January 1st

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 8.—The steady growth of the American merchant marine in all classes of vessels was revealed today for the first time since the war began in statistics from the department of commerce showing that in the first five months of this year there have been built in this country and officially numbered by the bureau of navigation a total of 629 vessels of 687,055 gross tons.

The merchant fleet of the United States now amounts to approximately 10,000,000 gross tons, not including craft under control of the army and navy in which transports and supply ships. At the beginning of January 26, 724 merchant vessels of 9,343,742 gross tons were flying the stars and stripes on trips across the Atlantic with food and munitions, into the Caribbean and Pacific with American products for foreign customers and on the lakes and rivers of this country as part of the nation's domestic transportation system.

This tremendous fleet is second only to the merchant tonnage of Great Britain. It includes all the new vessels built under the direction of the shipping board and thousands of other ships, smaller in aggregate carrying capacity, which play so large a part in the commerce and the maintenance of a favorable balance of trade.

There has been a steady increase in new ships this year, the May tonnage being three times as great as the January output. In the first month of 1918 there were 67 ships of 64,735 tons given official numbers. In February 84 ships of 117,601 gross tons were numbered. March saw a notable jump in the production of small ships, numbers being awarded to 138, the tonnage being 147,145. The record in April was 165 ships of 163,050 tons and in May 155 ships of 194,464 tons.

IOWA FLOOD WATER RECEEDING TODAY

Crest of Huge Wave Now in Louisiana County—3,000 Acres Swept Clear of Growing Crops.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, June 8.—Reports from the districts flooded by waters from the Iowa river tonight are that the water is going down and that the crest of the huge wave is now in Louisiana county.

With the recession of the water come many estimates of the huge damage done and the number of acres covered. These run all the way from up to two millions of dollars in damage and one man who has been over part of the inundated area states that near 3,000 acres of land has been swept clear of growing crops.

A large percent of this land was planted in corn. Preparations already are making to plant buckwheat as soon as the soil is in proper condition. The great damage was done in the vicinity of Tama, Chelsea, Belle Plaine, Marengo, Amana, Con Falls and down to Iowa City. The overflow began at Moutour and from that point to within three miles of Belle Plaine, a stretch of more than 24 miles, all bottom land was a sea of water. They pledged their loyalty to the government.

S. J. Koenekamp, president of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union announced recently that he would call a strike of members of the union as a result of the refusal of the Western Union company to submit to the jurisdiction of the national war labor board which sought to compose differences between the company and the men growing out of the discharging of operators for joining the union.

Some 3,000 telegraphers in Chicago told the president that they were not represented by any labor leaders who had threatened to call a strike and that they resented the inference that they might be "so base and disloyal" as to support a strike.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

In the battle field of the Marne, where a week ago the Germans were hurling their masses of troops against the western side of the wedge they had driven into the allied lines in the battle that began on March 26, the Germans now standing virtually on the defensive in the Chateau Thierry sector. American and French troops are participating in a reaction on the extreme tip of the salient and are making progress in this important region. The British are engaged on the other side of the wedge between the Marne and Rheims.

While the operations take the nature of local attacks they have had their effect in driving the Germans back from the points they reached on the crest of the wave that carried them far on the road to Paris. The attacks, which began just to the northwest of Chateau Thierry, are spreading northward along the line and everywhere the allies report ground recovered from the enemy. The rush of the American marines and the French on Thursday afternoon has not continued to gain in ground as fast as it did in the inception of the movement, but it is still going on. In the meantime they have withstood two violent attacks by the Germans and have repulsed the enemy in decisive fashion.

Reports from the whole battle line in France are to the effect that there has been renewed activity on the part of the German artillery in several sectors of the front. Notable among the regions under bombardment is the line between Noyon and Montdidier.

When the Germans pushed west from St. Quentin late in March and early in April the line from Noyon to Montdidier was almost equal in importance to that in front of Amiens. The French forces were rushed to this front and fought savagely to stop the German advance. They retake ground which was of strategic and tactical importance.

On the Woerpe sector just to the southeast of Verdun is claiming attention. Large movements of enemy troops in the direction of St. Mihiel have been reported by aerial observers and there are indications that the positions of the Americans along this part of the front may be in the storm center of a terrific attack soon. The advantages to be gained by the Germans, if they succeed in breaking this line are manifold. Eighteen miles west of St. Mihiel is the town of Bar-le-duc and still further westward, 28 miles away, is Vitry, which would be but a stepping stone to a dash to Chalons-sur-Marne. If the line at St. Mihiel could be broken or driven back very far the whole Verdun sector would be in peril and might have to be abandoned.

In the Flanders sector, which has been quiet since the beginning of the attack along the Aisne, the Germans on Wednesday sought to improve their positions by capturing the Hospice at Loere. This point would give them a starting point for an attack on the village of Loere, which is considered one of the keys to the allied positions along the hills behind the line southwest of Ypres. The French forces in this sector on Friday, however, attacked the enemy and drove him back to his former positions and the allied line has been restored.

There have been no engagements of a notable character on the Italian front, but in Macedonia the allies, particularly the Greeks, have been continuing their aggressive operations.

TURKS RECEIVING SERIOUS BLOW

NEW YORK, June 8.—Mohammedan prisoners of war in Salonica according to a cable message from Athens to the Greek legation in Washington made public here today by the American committee for relief say that "the Greeks in Turkey are undergoing the worst blow since the fall of Constantinople, 1453 A. D."

The message says Mohammedan captives say since beginning of the war to the end of 1917 more than 200,000 Greeks and 150,000 Armenians have been drafted into the Turkish army and thousands have died of ill-treatment, hunger and epidemics.

"Women are sold as slaves," says the cablegram. "Men are forced to become Mohammedans and millions of dollars worth of property belonging to Greeks has been confiscated. Men from Aivalia and other cities were seen working as slaves in rags and begging for food. Forty to fifty deaths occur daily among Greeks in Smyrna from hunger and weakness. Two hundred families have been deported from Tavaria in Constantinople."

"The streets in the larger cities are full of Greek orphans, half naked, begging for bread in spite of the fact that Turkish authorities have torn them from their parents."

U.S. STEAMSHIP ESCAPES FROM "SUB" ATTACK

Races with Undersea Vessel for Nearly a Week

(By Associated Press)
AN ATLANTIC PORT, June 8.—Racing at full speed for nearly a week to escape German submarines, an American steamship arrived today from the West Indies with 59 passengers, more than half of whom were women and children. The women showed great calmness and courage in the race for safety. With the first inkling that U-boats were at work the captain took drastic steps to protect his ship and lives of his passengers. Taking a zig-zag course, he ordered the engines to get up every pound of steam available and then ran far off the route usually followed by steamers in West Indian trade. Life boats were prepared for instant lowering and passengers warned if they appeared on deck they would be thrown into irons.

Officers and men obtained no sleep for 72 hours, keeping constant lookout for submarines. The wireless operator picked up an S. O. S. call from the Carpathia.

A. J. Danyon, a Philadelphia banker and Frank P. Gilroy, a mining engineer from Denver paid a tribute to work of officers and men and the courage of women passengers.

An now comes M. B. Wells of Fairbury, Ill., and announces his candidacy for the Republican nomination for senator in Illinois. The plot thickens. Mr. Wells in his letter of announcement suggests that the fact of three Chicago candidates, Mayor Thompson, Medill McCormick and George H. Foss, is going to hurt the party and he therefore believes that a down state Republican not only has a chance but should be elected. Mr. Wells is the president of the Farmers and Merchants bank of Fairbury and says, furthermore, that he is entering the race "at the solicitation of my many friends."

THAT BUMPER WHEAT CROP.

Optimism is gradually gaining the ascendancy in all national operations of the day and it even dominates the crop forecast of the department of agriculture. Everything now indicates a wheat harvest which will outdo the big June 1 forecast by 70,000,000 bushels or so, and bringing the grand total of production to 1,000,000,000 bushels. This will be one of the very largest wheat crops the country has ever recorded.

Some months ago there were frequent stories about agents of Germany damaging wheat fields and otherwise taking steps to cut down the production and to lessen the supply for the U. S. and the allies as well. Evidently these agents of the Kaiser have not been operating with their customary "efficiency" for the wheat crop is going to be better and bigger than ever. Some use of substitutes must continue and corn flour will still be popular, but there is going to be enough wheat to feed the world for at least another year.

SECRETARY BAKER ASKS MORE NURSES FOR ARMY.

Secretary of War Baker has issued an official call for nurses to care for the soldiers who are sure to need them in the heavy fighting ahead of them in France. He made the call thru the American Red Cross, which is in charge of the recruiting of nurses.

Next after the arming, sheltering and transporting of the army, the secretary said, comes the duty of "conserving its health and vitality, and blinding up the wounds which unhappily, but inevitably, must come to it."

Secretary Baker urges all hospitals to release as many nurses as possible for overseas service; all training schools to increase their output of graduate nurses; civil communities to take care of the public health so that fewer nurses will be needed; and all persons to take as little time of nurses as possible, but to rely on attendants who cannot serve the army.

The call from Secretary Baker is in line with the original appeal from Surgeons General Gorgas of the army and Braisted of the navy declaring that they must have 25,000 nurses before the end of the year.

The Red Cross made public the new need for nurses on June 2, and all its chapters began the work of calling on nurses to enroll and people to release all the nurses they possibly could. In-

THE LOCAL AGRICULTURAL CRISIS

The government's decision that all class 1 men must enter the army service this month has caused a feeling of consternation in this county owing to the fact that more than 250 young men actually engaged in farming work are in this class. Up to this time because of the action of the local board these young men have been temporarily deferred. The board has realized local agricultural conditions and how much depends on the raising of the crops and has been able to defer the sending of these agricultural workers.

In the present instance, however, the board is powerless for the order has come from the adjutant general, transmitted from the provost marshal general, to send all these class 1 men June 24. A number of farmers have discussed the matter with the local board and understand fully that the board members realize the situation but under present conditions can do nothing that will afford relief.

Because of this fact a movement is under way, fostered by a number of Jacksonville men, to present this matter, which really has its serious aspect to the adjutant general with the hope that the agricultural workers may secure furloughs of 30 days to be effective from the date of June 24, when they are now scheduled to go to Camp Taylor. The effect of the proposal, if it can have the approval of the adjutant general, will be to send the agricultural workers to a training camp about the last week in July instead of June 24. By that time the wheat and oats crop will be harvested and corn will be laid by. This will insure the saving of the wheat and oats crop and put the corn crop in condition where no special work will be required until the late fall months.

The persons who understand the local agricultural situation cannot but believe that when the whole matter is explained to the adjutant general and the war department that the request will be acceded to. Such action would only be in accord with the policy of the government to recognize that the raising of food is only slightly secondary in its importance to the fighting program of the country.

The year promises bumper crops and this food supply must not be permitted to waste. This must be made an "over the top" year in both food production and fight. Workers are essential in both instances.

stantly the nurses began to respond, and inquiries by the score were received from devoted women who are trained to relieve suffering and save life.

There is no room for doubt that army and navy will get the nurses they need at this time. More important is the matter of a supply for next year, and the years thereafter, if the war shall last so long. To make sure of that supply, it is proposed to establish, at many or all the army cantonments, training schools where young women can be given a course similar to that in the large hospitals. After a certain amount of training in camp they will be sent to civilian hospitals, graduated and given diplomas, when they will be eligible for service as Red Cross nurses.

The campaign for nurses is just as much a part of the people's business as the saving of food, the paying of taxes, the recruiting of the army and navy. The people can do their part by waiting on each other in sickness, and letting the fighting men have the nurses.

THE SPIRIT OF THE DAY.

Since the news has been spread abroad that 400 Morgan county young men must soon go into the army service, many of their married men, there have been of course a number of instances wherein the young men or their relatives have immediately thought of reasons why these men should not go into the army service just at this time. Some of these reasons are legitimate and others will not stand close inspection.

However, it is really interesting to note the very cheerful spirit with which most of these young men have received the announcement that they must soon get into army life, this applying to both the unmarried and the married. To a salutation addressed to one of these young men, a suggestion that he is soon to be in a training camp, the answer almost invariably is something like this: "Yes, that's what they tell me, and it is only a question of time until there will be hundreds of others following us to camp. The way I look at it the sooner we get into service the better. I certainly want to do my part in this war and I believe when the Kaiser sees a few million Americans actually at the battle front that he won't take many months to bring about a satisfactory peace."

Water Supply—It's Your Concern

The water supply question now before the people is the most important matter that has come up for consideration in many years. It is one which concerns every resident of the city. It is not only a plain business proposition but it is also a matter of personal and individual interest.

Someone truly said the past week that this water supply question from a Jacksonville standpoint should be a matter of only secondary concern for the people of this city. In these days in every city in the land the great war must of necessity have first consideration and in this city this matter of water supply readily takes second place.

No one questions the need of procuring a water supply as a matter of health and protection. In the present instance the plan proposed for securing a supply has been reached after the most careful period of water supply investigation that Jacksonville has ever known.

In the history of the city three general proposals for securing a water supply have been made. The Illinois river proposition was tried and is a thing of the past. The same may be said of the north side wells, insofar as furnishing an adequate and permanent supply. True the city still has the north side wells and they constitute a valuable asset, but cannot be depended upon to furnish a permanent supply.

The third general proposal often considered is an impounding reservoir plan. That is the plan that the committee appointed at a mass meeting of citizens held at the court house now earnestly advocates, after a joint period of investigation in connection with city officials.

There is no need at this time to rehearse the history of the months of water supply inquiry thru which this joint committee has passed, working in conjunction with the three state departments and experienced engineers. The whole plan has been most carefully considered and exact data have been secured before making a report to the people. The recommendation of the joint committee in favor of the impounding reservoir at the south fork is in reality a report to the people, for the members of the committee were appointed by a largely attended mass meeting of citizens held at the court house to make this investigation. In fact, there were two of these meetings and the committee in its present report, which is embodied in the bond election proposal, is carrying out a matter of public trust for which it was specifically delegated.

There is no sound argument against this water supply proposal at this time. Those who believe that it will be advisable for the city council to have the advice and co-operation of a citizens' committee in development of water supply improvement will find their answer in the bond ordinance. This document as a matter of record provides that members of the citizens' committee shall have joint responsibility with the city council in expenditure of all funds, and the direction of all work in connection with the plan.

Specific provision is further made that the money raised from the proposed bonds can be used for no other purpose than water supply extension. Provision is made for the refunding of the bonds and it is provided further that money arising from sales of water shall be used for no other purpose than operation of the department and making of any further needed betterments.

Some public improvements should wait until after the war, it is true, but this proposed water supply extension is not in that class. It is an improvement which the health of the people and the protection of their property earnestly demand. The improvement here will have the approbation of the health department of Illinois, for water supply plants within the state cannot now be erected without this approval. In this instance, the state has a more specific interest. The department of public welfare has its eye on the situation here and is simply waiting to see what Jacksonville is going to do about the question.

The state has drawn plans for providing its own water supply for the three state institutions here. These plans will be put into effect if Jacksonville does not take the necessary steps for providing a supply and if it does not take these steps now. The state does not propose to jeopardize hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of state property here, or the lives and health of hundreds of wards and employees of the state any longer. If Jacksonville people do not provide the supply the state will, and the revenue of $8,000 or more annually will be forever lost to the city of Jacksonville.

This is not the time to talk about waiting for a more "favorable season" for the erection of a plant or of delaying until some other city government is in power. It does not matter what form of government this city has or who are its officials. If the water bond issue is authorized the provisions of the ordinance must be carried out exactly as written upon the records. That ordinance is now a matter of common knowledge and if the bonds are authorized the provisions of the ordinance must be met.

In some bond proposals the fact of the increased taxation results in opposition from property holders. In the present instance altho a small tax will be necessary to provide for the interest on the bonds and their refunding, the proposition can be figured as an asset rather than a liability. An adequate supply of water will mean a less rate of insurance and the saving in this regard will be more than the tax expenditure. For many people a new supply would mean a saving of the money now spent for water and in the bettered sanitary conditions of the city there would be a very decided saving in expenditure.

The water supply proposal will cost $75,000 but it will be a genuine business investment, with an adequate and certain money return, to say nothing of the attendant blessings which result from an ample and pure water supply.

TO ALL LIBERTY LOAN WORKERS

A greater number of individuals than ever before known, own Government bonds as a result of your splendid work during the Third Liberty Loan Campaign. The number of stockholders in the Government should be still further increased thru the sale of War Savings Stamps and the teaching of Thrift and Economy and the necessity for conserving labor and material should be continuous. Friday, June 28th, has been designated as National War Savings Day when a special effort will be made thruout the nation to secure pledges from every American to save and economize and to purchase War Savings Stamps. I earnestly desire that Liberty Loan workers render all assistance possible to War Savings Committee in this campaign. The more thoroughly the necessity for individual saving and economy is brought home to the people of the nation the easier will be our work in future liberty bond issues. The more quickly and adequately can the army and navy be equipped and the more certain will be the future welfare and prosperity of our people. May I beg you to do everything in your power to enlist every American as a patriotic war saver and owner of War Savings Stamps.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

Last Monday afternoon John F. Clark tied his family horse in the rear of the court house where he has been tying it for many years. When he went to get the animal it had disappeared.

What made the matter especially embarrassing to Mr. Clark was that the buggy and harness was the property of his brother-in-law, William G. Wolfe.

After a search of the city Mr. Clark came to the conclusion that the horse and vehicle had been stolen. Mr. Clark and Mr. Wolfe are both members of the Anti-Horse Thief association. Abe Reid, president of that organization and Chief of Police Davis, were notified of the loss.

Liberal rewards were offered and an advertisement was placed in the columns of the Journal. Friday William Young was looking at the horses in the livery barn of T. J. Packard and found Mr. Clark's horse in one of the stalls. The matter was reported to the police and Mr. Clark was notified and went and got his horse and vehicle.

Naturally you ask. How did the horse get in the barn? The answer is a case of mistaken identity, as it were. On last Monday some man, name unknown, was playing pocket billiards in a local billiard hall.

He became interested in the game and asked Franklin Upp to get his horse from the rear of the court house and take it to the Packard barn and have it taken care of. Upp followed instructions but got the wrong horse. Upp gave the matter no more thought until he happened to read the advertisement in the Journal. Then he hastened to rectify the mistake he had made and reported the matter to Chief Davis. However, Mr. Young had already discovered the identity of the horse and Mr. Clark had again come in to possession of his property.

HOUSE ENJOYS ANNUAL GAME

President Witnesses Ball Game Between Republicans and Democrats of the House of Representatives.

Washington, June 8.—President Wilson laid aside the cares of state today to see the Democrats and Republicans of the House of Representatives struggle thru their annual baseball game which went for six and one half innings and was staged for the benefit of the American Red Cross. For once there was no debate as to the winner. The official scorer said the minority representatives had nineteen runs to five for the majority party players and nobody disputed him.

Besides the president, Vice-President Marshall, Speaker Clark and many high government officials were gathered at American League Park and they appeared to find keen enjoyment in baseball as played by the selected representatives of the people. The players, too, enjoyed themselves until the novelty of running the bases and chasing the ball was supplanted by weary muscles and shortening breath.

Officially the game was called on account of darkness, though played long before the sun went into eclipse.

The Democrats did well at batting practice, but after coming long enough to pose for the movies with Speaker Clark they were unable to solve the delivery of Representative Mudd of Maryland, who performed in the box for the winners. They failed to put over a run in the first inning but improved enough to score two in the second with three added in their big inning—the sixth. Representative Delaney of New York started out as pitcher for the Democrats and was touched for three runs in the opening round, largely because of the failure of his co-workers to be where the ball was hit. His form did not improve in the second and third, so Representative McClintock of Oklahoma, catcher and boss of the Democratic nine inserted himself into the pitching position.

The Republicans went right along piling up runs and they settled the contest in the fifth round. With the bases full Pitcher Mudd came to bat. Delaney went over from his position at third base to give McClintock some pointers on what to throw the Republican pitcher. Mudd responded by bouncing a hot one off Delaney's shins, clearing the bases.

The Republicans lay much of their success to the fact that they had selected Miss Jeannette Rankin, Representative from Montana as their mascot.

The teams lined up as follows: Republicans—Larkin, (Mass.) 2b, Fuller, (Illinois), ss, Johnson, (So. Dak.) c, Mudd, (Maryland), p, Snell, (New York), cf, Morin, (Penn'a.), 1b, Waldo, (New York), 3b, Miller, (Minn.) and Farr (Penn'a.), lf. Democrats—Denison, (Illinois), rf, Sterling, (Penn'a.), 3b, Gard, (Ohio), rf and lf, Webb, (North Carolina) cf, Rouz, (Ky.), c-p, Whaley, (S. C.), 2b, Delaney, (N. Y.), p-2b, Bankhead, (Ala.), rf, Gunn, (N. Y.), lf, Nicholls, (S. C.), ss, Kincheloe, (Ky.), lf.

HOUSEHOLDERS TO USE LESS COAL

Birmingham, England, June 8.—A national scheme for household coal to apply to the whole country decided upon at a conference here this week. A reduction in the use of coal for householders is contemplated in order to avoid rationing supplies for industrial purposes.

SEEKS TO PRESERVE HISTORIC MONUMENTS

French Historic Monuments Committee Has Sought to Conserve and Repair Works of Art in War Zone—Cathedral of Amiens Has Special Attention.

Paris, June 8.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) Steps have been taken by French to conserve and repair historic monuments in the war zone.

"The Historic Monuments Committee has had a double task to perform" says a report of the budget committee to the Chamber of Deputies. Its first task has been the removal of pictures, statues, stained glass and wood carvings. Its second has been the protection, so far as possible, of what could be removed.

"Thousands of works of art have thus been saved from destruction, such as the statues and stained glass windows of the church of Thann, the mausoleum of Rene de Chalons, Ligier's famous skeleton, now at Bar le Duc, the windows of the church of Chalons, Pont a Mousson, and Epernay and all the art treasures of Rheims."

"Whatever could not be removed, whether within churches or standing in the open, has been protected by means of framework filled with bags of earth, in this way the famous place Stanislas at Nancy, the facade of the Musee Lorrain and the tombs of the Cordeliers (Grey Friars) have been rendered practically proof against shell and bomb fire.

"The Cathedral of Amiens has received special attention and has an independent fire brigade attached to it, with a water power sufficiently strong to reach the spire. So far repairs to historic monuments have consisted in repairing the churches weather-proof, but the architects are already preparing definite plans and estimates with a view to permanent restoration.

"In regard to the ruins which the Germans have left in their wake the authorities have already decided to give over to total destruction certain relics, but to leave them for future generations as eloquent witnesses of the war."

Monuments such as Albi, Saint-Nazaire, Perthes, Massiges, Souain which tell of the disasters of invasion there are other monuments which will be of the greatest interest and value hereafter as instances and object lessons of the character and methods of the war such as the more important field works, but the legal status of the souvenirs has yet to be fixed.

"There are places which have been the scenes of so much heroism that they have become places of pilgrimage. It is the duty of the State to assure their preservation and protect them from commercial profanation."

ENGLISH WOMEN RETURN FROM FRONT

Arrive in London after Three Years Spent in Caring for the Wounded Belgian Soldiers—Suffering from Gas Attack by Germans.

London, May 15.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) The Baroness T'Serclaes and Miss Mairi Chisholm, two English women who have lived in a dugout on the Belgian front for three and a half years, caring for the Belgian troops, and who are known throughout the Belgian army as the "Good Women of Pervyse" have arrived in London, suffering from the effects of a gas attack on the Belgian front in the recent fighting there. Both have been seriously ill, but are now sufficiently recovered to be admitted to a convalescent hospital here.

"We were accustomed to bombardment," said the Baroness in an interview, "and our dugout has been hit a hundred times since we lived there. But in this last attack the shelling was more dreadful than we have ever known. It was early one morning after a night-long bombardment that we decided to venture out, knowing that there would be many wounded needing our care. While we were dressing, I heard a shell burst outside our dugout, and a moment later I found our orderly lying on the floor of the corridor. I rushed up to see what I could do for him when suddenly I felt as if a rope had been fastened around my neck.

"I could not breathe and was absolutely helpless. Miss Chisholm too was in agonies. My little dog Spot, who had been with us for three years, came up and looked at me with wondering eyes, licked my hand and died. I don't think I had ever before felt that I actually hated my enemy, but ever since my dog was gassed I have longed above all else to kill a German."

Ambulance Smashed by Shell.

"It was only about half an hour before we were taken away in an ambulance. The ambulance was smashed by a shell after a quarter of a mile and we were picked up again and taken in a big truck to a base hospital. We were there several days before we were able to be moved to London. The two "Women of Pervyse" have been the only women who have been permitted to live and work at the Belgian front. Hundreds of volunteers, American and British, have asked to be allowed to help them, but the Belgian command would not even allow a third woman at Pervyse.

In the early days they worked single-handed, but a doctor, two stretcher-bearers and a chauffeur came to help them later in their little casualty station. The nearest hospital is ten miles from Pervyse. Their station was always open day and night for trivial ailments as well as for serious wounds. Their dugout was made of concrete and had an operating room, a kitchen and a small sleeping room.

The husband of the Baroness is a Belgian army officer.

TABACCO RATIONS IN FRANCE

American Soldiers Overseas Hear Welcome Announcement—Two Stories from Front.

Paris, May 30.—The American soldier has received no more welcome news since his arrival in France than the recent announcement that henceforth the War Department will issue tobacco rations. The scarcity of tobacco, particularly the kind to which he has been accustomed, has been a real hardship for the American soldier ever since he arrived on this side, and of late the situation has become so critical as to demand attention from the highest authorities.

An American soldier arriving from the front, much spattered with mud and with his impediments was waylaid in a narrow street one night recently by a dozen American soldiers, stationed in Paris. It was a terribly unfair attack, for, although the newcomer carried a rifle and a bayonet, and his assailants had only their strong two fists, they rushed him so fast he could make no resistance.

French Soldiers to the Rescue. Some French soldiers coming up the street heard the noise of battle and ran to the rescue. But instead of helping the unfortunate man, they joined the enemy raiders.

The soldier on leave, not being able to get even his hands free, and surrounded, finally found his voice.

"Say, what the devil do you fellows want?" he bellowed.

"Smokes—cigs—tobacco—see-garett!" The last from the French men.

"Buy—but—but—"

"Well, you're coming from the front, ain't ye? And that's the only place in France they've got any left!" the raiders exclaimed.

"What? Cigarettes at the front? They're kidding you," the newcomer replied. "Why all we've got is this Boche stuff!"

And he rummaged himself, pulled out a tin box, and opened it.

In a second the twenty cigarettes were gone, and so was the mob. With evident relief, the soldier threw his tin box on the sidewalk with a hearty bang, and kept on his way to the Y. M. C. A. hotel, where hot water and linen awaited him.

Story Concerns French Raid.

The tin box which he had thrown away so contemptuously has a story—two stories, in fact. On it was inscribed the brand of Turkish tobacco, and the fact that it was made by the government in Sarajevo, Bosnia, the Austro-Hungarian town where Prinzp fired the shot which killed Francis Joseph's heir, and gave Germany an excuse for war. Boche tobacco it was, truly, as the soldier had said. The first story concerns a big raid which the French made on the Salonika front, and which gave them guns, prisoners and stories. In the latter were several million cigarettes. These the French Government gave to its troops when the regular supply was exhausted.

The second story concerns the shortage in tobacco for the American army, a shortage so acute that General Pershing's headquarters had to ask the French for help, and part of this help consisted of the Boche tobacco. But this lasted only a few days, and as all France is short of cigarettes, matches, papers, and tobacco—everything but the habit, in fact—the situation was anything but promising until the War Department at Washington announced measures for relief.

Men Line up for Tobacco.

Of the many thousands of tobacco shops in Paris, all but one or two show a sign announcing they have no cigarettes for sale. The two exceptions get a few British cartons every day, and about once a week they offer a little French tobacco. Every day there is a long line-up in front of these shops, regulated by the police, and men and women wait an hour to get an ounce of tobacco or twenty cigarettes.

Despite the generous gifts of thousands of Americans at home, the efforts of associations, newspapers, and the quartermaster's department of the army, the American boys in France have really suffered because they could not get tobacco. The blame cannot be laid on any individual or organization, but rather on all the unusual conditions caused by the long war.

One relieving feature has been the work of the Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A. in maintaining supplies. But these supplies came largely from the British and the French and were not of the brands liked best by the Americans. So it was with extreme joy that the American soldiers learned that in future they will be able to get what they want thru the commissary department of the army.

EGYPT HAS PARTLY SOLVED FUEL PROBLEM

Cairo, Egypt.—The fuel problem in Egypt, which at one time threatened to cause the most serious hardship to the whole country, has been largely solved, says the annual report of the government's financial adviser, Sir William Brunyate, by the development of the Red Sea oilfields and the adaptation of machinery to produce gas distilled from vegetable refuse.

The report declared that an "adequate supply of oil for all purposes" should shortly be available. The Hurgadada oilfield, for example, although only discovered in 1914, is now yielding 15,000 tons a month. The production of gas from vegetable refuse, which is now being pushed on a large scale, was due to the researches of Dr. J. A. Wells, former inspector-general of mines department of the Egyptian government.

H. H. KNOLLENBERG DIED AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Death Came to Well Known Citizen at Early Hour This Morning—Long Identified With Business Life of Jacksonville.

The death of Henry H. Knollenberg long time resident and prominent citizen of Jacksonville occurred this (Sunday) morning at 1:20 o'clock at his home on South Main street Mr. Knollenberg had been ill for an extended period with a heart affection and his death was not unexpected.

At several times during the past few years Mr. Knollenberg has been in such serious condition that his children have been summoned from their homes in distant states. Each time however his marvelous constitution resulted in a rally of strength which made it possible for him to again leave his sick room. In recent months there have been alternating periods of illness and improvement but Mr. Knollenberg gradually lost in strength and during the last days grew weaker until the end came.

The deceased began the tobacco business in this city in 1858 and continued in it until a comparatively few years ago. His last place of business was at the corner of East State and the square in the building which is now a part of his extensive estate. Mr. Knollenberg thus ranked as one of the oldest business men of Jacksonville and in various ways had a record as a long time citizen. Several years ago he was presented a jewel on the 50th anniversary of his initiation into Odd Fellowship and the exercises were of imposing character.

As in the other affairs of life Mr. Knollenberg was true to the principles of Odd Fellowship and the order during his long membership honored him in many ways. Mr. Knollenberg was a man with the strictest ideas of honesty and integrity and these characteristics dominated his public and private life. He was properly rated one of the strong men of the community and leaves for his family an honored name.

A more extended notice and the time of the funeral will be given in Tuesday's Journal.

INTERVENTION DIFFICULT.

Washington, June 8.—Armed intervention in Russia, the Siberia or otherwise would be exceedingly difficult because of the hostility of the population and could not improve the allied military situation, Secretary Lansing was told today by Dr. John Szlupas of the Lithuanian central committee who recently returned from a stay of nearly a year in Russia. Dr. Szlupas who called on Mr. Lansing to ask America's moral support for the small nationalities in Eastern Russia who are seeking to set up states, described greater Russia as a territory lapsing under Bolshevik domination into the barbarism of a thousand years ago.

During the past year Miss Sheppard has quite frequently played at Camp Devens, near Boston, being one of a group of well known musicians and stage folk who have done their bit for the entertainment of soldiers. The following paragraphs of press comment indicate the high regard in which Miss Sheppard's work is held in the east.

The Lewiston Journal of May 2 has the following to say of the work of Miss Sheppard as accompanist to Sergi Adamski, Russian tenor, in the annual May concert held in Lewiston, Maine.

"Miss Edna Sheppard, accompanist of M. Adamski, is a pianist of much individual charm of personality. She looked like a dainty school girl and in her accompaniments there was real art."

Of Miss Sheppard's appearance in Worcester, Mass., accompanist to Miss Helen Slaffoff Porter, dramatic artist from the theatre De Paris, the Worcester Daily Telegram has the following to say:

"Miss Edna Sheppard, pianist, shared the honors of the night with Mme. Porter. She played solos besides acting as accompanist."

In her Worcester appearance, Miss Sheppard opened the program with a talk on French music and musicians, and their relation to the great war, that was especially interesting. Her remarks showed that in addition to her technical knowledge, Miss Sheppard is well grounded in the history and theory of music.

RAMBLERS PLAY TODAY

The Murrayville Ramblers will face the Independents at West Side park this afternoon. The Ramblers have many of the old faces including Royle, Ruble, Longergan and some new ones as well. Among the new ones is Hicks, the pitcher. Hicks is said to be a classy hurler and with the veteran Doyle back of the pan will give the Indies a strong argument. Manager Smith will use Kitchin on the mound with Beerup on the receiving end. Kitchin has a perfect record so far this season and will endeavor to keep the slate clean this afternoon.

Professor Larson, an expert organist from Chicago, will play the pipe organ orchestra for the Marguerite Clark picture at Scott's Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

THE SPRINKLING QUESTION.

A number of business men are getting busy on the question of street sprinkling as a matter of preservation of their goods and a general matter of comfort and convenience. A special effort is to be made tomorrow and merchants will be called on to aid in the matter. It is probable that a committee will go around and see what can be done.

Miss Mary Loar, who is a member of the faculty of the deaf at Council Bluffs, Iowa, came to Jacksonville last night to spend the summer months with her sister, Miss Annie T. Loar. Her coming was some what delayed by high water, as heavy rains in Iowa have interfered with railroad traffic.

COAT AND SUIT SALE
ATTRACTING MUCH ATTENTION AT HERMAN'S.RIPPLING RHYMS
By Walt Mason

PEACE TALK
It fills my soul with sorrow,
That men must fight and kill today and yet tomorrow, and more tomorrow still; I'm tired of all the saying in the spring fields over there, where once the children, maying, with laughter filled the air. I'm weary of the story of shrieks and dying groans, of weapons red and gory, of graves and dead men's bones. And yet I'd hold it treason to boost for balmy peace; It's surely not the season to give such thoughts release. Until our avalanches of men have crushed the foe, no doves with olive branches will have the slightest show. Until we're done with shooting the Russian off the walk, the dove that comes a-cooing
due to meet a shock. The peace that leaves the Junker of Prussia still on deck, would be a whole lot sicker than war and death and wreck. We had to leave our haying to polish off the Hun, and now we'll go on slaying, until the job is done. We had to quit our farming, desert our growing crops, and there'll be no disarming while yet a Teuton yawns. A half licked Hun, would never forsake his dreams of power, and he'd be worse than ever in less than half an hour. And so no gents or ladies can talk of peace to me, although the war is hades that's multiplied by three.

SCIENTISTS ENDORSE
BRITISH WAR BREAD

Series of Tests Prove That While Wheat Bread Mixed With Other Cereals Gives High Percentage of Energy.

London, May. — (Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The British "war bread" has been vindicated and endorsed by a committee of scientists after a series of tests conducted in the laboratories of Cambridge, Glasgow and London universities and in a number of factories and hospitals.

The committee found that the flour mixed with 20 per cent of other cereals is not only suited to all ages and digestions, but also "gives a higher percentage of energy."

The loaves used in the experiments were baked from flour milled under the personal supervision of A. E. Humphries, President of the National Association of British and Irish Millers. No precaution was omitted to make the experiments complete, and every result was worked out in a series of tablets.

At one factory in Yorkshire, the tests were applied to a group of 20 men, nine women, and 10 children. It was found that the bread supplied for a period of two months and they were under medical supervision throughout. In no case did it cause digestion trouble and in certain cases health seemed to improve during its use.

When the mixed bread was tried on twenty five patients suffering from tuberculosis it was found that the bread was preferred by the majority of the patients, all of whom had more or less impaired digestion. Most of the patients gained weight during the period they were under observation.

The report of the committee says: "The main fact established is that the human body can make better use of the parts of the wheat grain which have hitherto been discarded than the pigs and poultry to which these rich and nutrient by-products of milling have been given in the past. The country has gained enormously in food and energy from the compulsory inclusion in the loaf of these by-products. The gain can be expressed in definite terms as an increase of 1,700 billion calories of energy on the wheat milled each year in this country, or enough to extend the cereal supply of energy for more than a month."

PERSONNEL OF GERMAN
ARMY GENERAL STAFF

London, June 9.—Some of the personnel of the German army's general staff are flatteringly described by Eugen Zimmermann in an article published by the Berlin Lokalauszeiger. Seven of Ludendorff's associates are named, the first being Colonel von Mertz, "a quiet and far sighted assistant of his chief, with an important and interesting past."

Lieutenant Colonel Wetzell is called "a very clever and serious worker full of knowledge, and often to be found in his chief's room."

Lieutenant Colonel Bauer is said to have been described by Ludendorff as "the cleverest officer in the army." Zimmermann says he has an extraordinary gift for organization.

The other officers mentioned are: Major Fubner, Major von Roedelberg, Major von Harbou, "whose unusual gifts are combined with a convincing eloquence," and finally, "the calm and solid Captain Geyer." "As the work never gets into arrears," the article asserts, "a small staff is preferable to a large one. Opinions are not always the same but there is never any personal friction and the submission to decisions is absolute."

Ellsworth Black is in the city for a vacation visit with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Carl E. Black. Mr. Black some time since enlisted in the medical reserve and is at Washington university medical school.

Charles Schlecker and son of Meredoss were business visitors in Jacksonville Saturday.

A HUGE FISH.

Charles H. Ward has left at the Journal office a paper from his brother, John N. Ward, now in St. Petersburg, Florida, containing an account of the huge fish taken in the waters off the coasts of Florida some time ago. The account is well authenticated and sounds indeed like a fairy tale. Talk about no fish being big enough to swallow Jonah; this one could have swallowed three men at once. It is a puzzle to scientists and seems to be in a class by itself. It is 45 feet long and proportionally large in girth, seems to be young and immature so that, had it been left to grow it would have been a great deal larger. Its hide was three inches thick and it was a huge monster. It is not of the whale family but more like a giant catfish. It has been mounted under the direction of a noted taxidermist from the Smithsonian institute at Washington.

HOT AT CAMP SHELBY.

Red Faugust writes his brother and sister from Camp Shelby, near Hattiesburg, Miss., that they are getting along very well except for the heat which is extreme down there but they hope to get used to it in due time. All are in good spirits and ready for business.

Congressman and Mrs. Medill McCormick Coming—Program Promises to Be Best Ever Seen Here.

The Chautauqua management is putting the finishing touches on the program for the coming chautauqua to be held from Aug. 24 to Sept. 1, inclusive. It has just secured Hon. Medill McCormick and Mrs. McCormick for addresses on Saturday, Aug. 24. Mr. McCormick, congressman at large from Illinois, spent much time recently along the allied battle lines in Europe. The management has arranged for a series of morning demonstrations in domestic science by a teacher of national reputation. The musical attractions secured for the assembly are the best it has ever had, and includes Liberator's Band and Concert Company of forty six people, the Boston Symphony Sextette, the Nippon Grenadiers, a very popular singing and acting band, gorgeously costumed, The Davies Light Opera Company with thirteen voices and the Metropolitan Grand Male Quartet, which pleased every one two years ago. ### WINCHESTER HAS NEW SERVICE FLAG

Seventy Two Stars on Emblem Floated Saturday—A Dedication Service—News Notes.

Winchester, Ill., June 8.—Winchester's first service flag was raised here tonight at 8:30 with an interesting ceremony. A large assemblage of people gathered at the northwest corner of the square where the service flag presented by Hainsfurther Bros. was raised. The large company was called to order by William Wainwright and after the Winchester band had played the Star Spangled Banner, Rev. C. W. Caseley made an eloquent address. The minister closed with a very earnest prayer and the ceremonial thrust was of an especially impressive kind. The service flag shows a total of 72 Winchester boys already in the service. The number of stars will probably be materially increased before the month of June passes.

A PUBLIC STATEMENT.

Owing to the law passed by the late general assembly in June of 1917 which fixes the salary of sheriff in counties of first and second class at $2,500 per year, and takes away the fees and profits from jail, I have decided not to be a candidate for the nomination for sheriff of Morgan county on the Democratic ticket.

I take this means of sincerely thanking my many friends throughout the county for their loyalty and support and shall always hold myself in readiness to repay same whenever the opportunity offers.

Again thanking one and all of my friends for their support which I have every reason to believe would have given me the nomination, I am,

Sincerely,
O. E. Tandy.

Cadet McGinnis visited the Journal office last night and talked interestingly of his work. He says that flying is the greatest sport in the world and the best branch of the army service. He is working hard and expects to complete the course and receive an officers commission within a few weeks and probably will then be ready for duty across the big pond.

Before coming to Scott field, Mr. McGinnis was stationed at Kelly field, San Antonio, Texas, and at Dallas, Texas. He is looking fine and says that flying agrees with him tho the course of instruction is a most intensive one.

the witnesses. A codicil to the will was drawn March 1, 1918, with Ewen Whitlock and J. J. Kelly as the witnesses. A second codicil was made May 28, 1918, just a few days before the death of the testator.

The estate of Mr. Wood includes about 1100 acres of land, nearly all of which is in the vicinity of Pisgah. It is land of good quality and the estate is said to be worth about $250,000. The testator provides that R. S. Wood and A. A. Curry shall be executors and trustees. The sum of $1,000 is left to Union Baptist church and the remaining property is bequeathed to relatives. Mrs. Wood, widow of the deceased, has full control of all the personal property and a life estate in the realty.

In a codicil to the will, made the 28th day of last month, Mr. Wood provided that Mrs. Wood make an annual allowance of $400 for each of the children and $200 for each of the grandchildren. However, the payment of these bequests is at the discretion of Mrs. Wood. It is also provided in this codicil that the trustees shall not charge more than two per cent for the handling of estate money which passes thru their hands.

The will in the principal paragraphs reads as follows:

I give, devise and bequeath to my brother, Richard S. Wood, as Trustee, and to his successor or successors in trust, Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), out of my personal estate, upon the trusts and conditions following, to-wit:

In Trust, (a): That my said Trustee loan said money at the best rate of interest obtainable, and out of the earnings thereof pay the taxes and any just charges against said fund, and that he pay the net proceeds thereof to Ella Wood, widow of my deceased son, Samuel Wood, so long as she remains the widow of my said son; or, in case she shall not remarry, then during her natural life.

In Trust, (b): Upon the re-marriage or death of the said Ella Wood, it is my will that said fund shall revert and become a part of the residuum of my estate, to be divided as provided for in the clause of my will dealing with the residuum of my estate.

I will, devise and bequeath to The Trustees of Union Baptist Church in Morgan County, Illinois, and to their successors as Trustees, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), to be held by said Trustees, and the income derived from loaning the same to be used in the maintenance of said Church and the Cemetery connected therewith.

In lieu of dower and all other rights, interests and claims of my beloved wife, Mary E. Wood, in and to my estate, I give, devise and bequeath unto my said wife the use, occupation, possession, rents, issues and profits of all of the real estate of which I may be seized, for and during the term of her natural life.

I also give to my said wife, after the payment of all debts, funeral expenses and special bequests heretofore provided for, the use, possession and control of all the personal property of which I may die seized, for and during her natural life, giving to my said wife full power and authority to sell any of the personal property that she may see fit to sell, and giving to her also the right to use any of the personal property, or the proceeds thereof, or moneys of which I may die seized, in such manner as will be for her greatest comfort and convenience. It is not my purpose to confine my wife to the income derived from my personal property, but to give her the right to use any part of the principal thereof that she may desire for her comfort and convenience.

At the death of my said wife, it is my will that any of the personal property remaining shall be divided into six equal parts—one part I devise to my son, Charles Wood; one part to my daughter, Minnie Curry; one part to my son, Arthur Wood; one part to my daughter, Elizabeth Hardwick, and one part to my son, Homer L. Wood; one half of one part to my grandson, Truman Gibson, and one half of one part to my granddaughter, Grace Gibson.

In case either of my children or grandchildren above named shall have died before the death of my wife leaving a child or children surviving, then the child or children of such deceased child or grandchild shall take the parent's share, in equal parts.

In case of the death of one of my children or grandchildren before the death of my said wife, leaving no child or children or descendants thereof him or her surviving, then such share shall revert and become a part of the residuum of my estate, to be distributed as hereinafter provided.

Subject to the life estate of my said wife, Mary E. Wood, I will, devise and bequeath to my brother, Richard S. Wood, as Trustee, and to his successor or successors in trust, for the uses and purposes herein set forth, seventy three and one-half (73 1/2) acres off of the North end of the west half of the North West quarter of Section Nine (9), and seventy three and one-half (73 1/2) acres off of the North end of the East half of the North West quarter of Section Eight (8), in Township Fourteen (14) North and Range Nine (9) West of the Third Principal Meridian in Morgan County, Illinois;

In Trust, (a): That he shall keep said land in a good farm-like condition, and shall rent the same to the best advantage possible, and shall annually, after the payment of the necessary repairs, taxes and other just charges against said real estate, or the income derived from the rental thereof, pay the same to my son, Charles Wood, for and during his natural life, and in case his present wife, Euphie Wood, shall survive him, then my said Trustee shall pay said net rentals to her during her natural life or until her re-marriage, should she re-marry. In Trust, (b): Upon the death of my said son, Charles Wood, and the re-marriage or death of his said wife, Euphie Wood, then it is my will that said real estate shall be sold and the proceeds equally divided among my grandchildren, the children of said Charles Wood; and in case of the death of either of my said grandchildren above referred to, leaving a child or children surviving, then it is my will that the child or children of such deceased grandchild shall take the parent's part, in equal shares.

Subject to the life estate of my said wife, Mary E. Wood, I will, devise and bequeath to Albert A. Curry as Trustee and to his successor or successors in trust upon the trusts hereinafter expressed, the following described real estate situated in the County of Morgan and State of Illinois, to-wit:

PROCLAMATION.

The 14th day of June this year is the 138th anniversary of the adoption of our national flag. It is also the 21st year of the nation wide celebration of the day. Never in our country's history has there been a time when our flag meant so much to us, nor was there so great a need for the whole nation to join in a celebration in honor and love of our beautiful emblem.

"Your flag and my flag! and how it flies today!"
Thro' your land and my land,
And half the world away
Rose red and blood red. Its stripes forever gleam
Snow white and soul white. The good fore-fathers' dream
Sky blue and true blue, with stars to shine aright
The glorie guardian of the day,
A shelter thro' the night."

For years the celebration of this day was left largely to the D. A. R. and G. A. R. and other patriotic societies, but the stress of these war-time calls for a community celebration in honor of our flag. May it draw us closer as members of one grand State and Nation. And to this end, I call upon all patriotic citizens to join in an observance of the day, and I ask all merchants and other men of business to close their stores and offices at five (5) o'clock in order that time may be given to attend the "Community Sing" on Illinois College Campus, arranged by the Rev. James Caldwell Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

You Know What Sherman Said
Superior Judge Graham, well known in San Francisco, has written this real war verse, says a dispatch. While his advice is good we believe that it is likely to lead to a state of affairs in the domestic household akin to what Sherman said about war. The verse follows:

"If with your wife you can't agree,
Grab her, place her on your knee;
Kiss her wildly as she squirms,
Soon you'll find she'll come to terms."

Be a cave man, seize your mate
If she shows you signs of hate;
Let her scratch, let her bite,
But kiss her, boy; it is your right."

Vell, at last I have found time to write. I have had plenty of time but you know a fellow has to write a lot to his folks and in a bunch like this it is hard to get it, for they are always singing and making a racket. There are some who sit and worry but I let them do mine for me, while I try to get as much amusement out of my soldier's life as is possible. It is warm here but there is always a breeze and it is so cool at night that a fellow has to use two blankets to keep warm and then it is hard to do sometime.

To tell the truth the war work is hard, but we have easy hours as now we only do 6 hours and for a time we only did 5 1-2 hours. Then we have Wednesday afternoon off and only work an hour on Saturday morning and are then off until Monday morning. Of course the time we are working we do not work very hard. I have not seen anything of a swimming pool here yet but we have a good place to take a shower bath and we take one every day and clean our teeth regularly, although they do not force you to do that. But I am in favor of anything of that sort. There is hard-ship in connection with this life, but it is mostly what a fellow makes of it. If he wants to be a crab and grumble, that is up to him, but if a fellow wants to be happy he will bear up under it and take what comes.

I do not like the south and they say that Texas is still worse than this. It is. I do not care to be there to see it. I have no cold water to drink except at meal times. Once in a while we have ice cold lemonade or ice water. Our eats are good and plentiful, white bread, potatoes, fresh meats and other good things. The coffee is not very good. But after all it is not so bad. But after all it is not so bad. But after all it is not so bad. But after all it is not so bad.

At Great Lakes Station.

Leighton Siegle, now stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Training station, has written the following letter to his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Dickerson, of this city:

Great Lakes, Ill.

May 31st, 1918.

Mrs. Myrtle Dickerson,

715 North Main St.,

Jacksonville, Ill.

My Dearest Mother and all at home:

I received your dear letter this morning and also the money for my birthday present. I knew you would not forget me on that day. I also received the box you sent a few days ago, and say, you don't know how I enjoyed all those good old El Maccos and tobacco and tell David and Mabel I got my hair cut with their little shavers they sent. Tell them Leighton sure appreciated their little thoughtfulness. God bless their little hearts. Mama, I had it all planned to get my furlough and walk in on you last Sunday and surprise all of you, as I thought it would be pay day, but I did not get any money, neither did I get my furlough so was very much disappointed. Gee I hate to get fooled. I got my commission as 2nd Cook the other day and I think that is why I could get no furlough. I am going on Receiving Ship next month I think. If I do that will mean 18 months here at the Training Station. I know that will make you feel better to think I won't have to go to sea duty for a while.

All the sailors went to Chicago yesterday on parade to participate in Memorial Exercises. There were about 70,000 soldiers and sailors on parade and it sure was a beautiful sight to see them come marching down the street for miles. It was a grand sight. You have seen them in motion pictures but that doesn't do them credit or give one the thrill that the real sight does.

I came across a fellow from Jacksonville the other day. He knew me but I couldn't place him. He said he went to school with me and worked at the Peacock Inn and at Batz Cafe, but I could not remember him. However we were both glad to see each other and felt better after we had talked. I have not seen Dr. Applebee yet but would like very much to meet him here. I know him and have waited on him quite often while working at the Peacock Inn.

I met a little nurse that used to be at the Passavant hospital. She is awaiting orders to go across the Pond. We never hear any war news here in Camp. No one talks of it. But all are anxious to get "Over There."

How is old Jacksonville? I guess it looks strange to see none of the boys that used to be there. I expect I'd be lost if I were there as I guess all my pals are in camp or "Over There" by now. Give all inquiring friends my best regards and tell them I am well and doing fine. I am glad Geraldine is getting better. Tell George hello and be good to you until I get home. I'll be back some day to help him. Kiss David and Mabel for me and a big hug and kiss for Geraldine and you "Mother O' Mine." Write soon to your loving absent Sailor Boy, Leighton Siegle, Great Lakes, Ill. Old Detention Gallery. Care Packey, Camp Boone.

How to Avoid Those Pains and Distress Which so Many Mothers Have Suffered

Such cannot be said for a woman's separation, familiar to many. It is more effective in its action than all the health rules ever laid down for the guidance of expectant mothers. It is an external application that spreads its influence upon the cords, tendons and muscles of the abdomen, rendering them pliant, and they expand gracefully without that peculiar wrenching strain.

The occasion is, therefore, one of unbounded joy and anticipation and too much stress cannot be laid upon the remarkable influence which a mother's happy prenatal disposition has upon the health and fortunes of the generations to come.

The pain at the crisis is infinitely less when Mother's Friend is used during the period of expectancy for the muscles expand easier and with less strain when baby is born.

Mother's Friend is for external use only, is entirely safe and may be used at any time. It is prepared by the Bradford Regulator Co., Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write for a free trial bottle. Do not neglect for a single night and morning to apply Mother's Friend according to directions around the bottle, and thus fortify yourself against pain and discomfort.

THE FRANKLIN HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA CASE

Editor Journal:

The board of trustees of the Franklin high school refused to give a diploma to Eryle B. Laverick, as he stopped school several months before the ending of the term. This boy quit school because he was unwilling to study German. He enlisted in the navy and is now in the service overseas. The question about this diploma caused a great deal of discussion in Franklin and this article, written by James Bond, grandfather of the lad, is in answer to one which appeared in the Franklin Times recently:

In a little country newspaper edited and published weekly at Franklin, Ill., and called The Franklin Times, whose editor and publisher signs his name as W. N. Luttrell, in its edition of May the 23 last there appeared under the title of "Sunshine and Rain" quite a lengthy epistle in which my name figured most conspicuously. I would not have considered it worth noticing had it not contained an accusation against me of wrong doing. It did not surprise me in any way but its length—two-thirds of a column, more or

AMERICAN WOMEN NO SLACKERS

We can well be proud of our American girls and women. In France and England women are taking up the work of men resolutely, and have shown their ability to do almost all kinds of work. When it becomes necessary women will show their worth in countless shops, stores, factories and offices. No one hears them complain of their hard work. These are the days when American men have cause to respect, love and honor their mothers, wives and sisters. If a woman is borne down by the weakness and sufferings of womanhood, she should be helped by a herbal tonic made with glycerine which has had such uniform success during the past half century. She should be well, instead of sick and suffering; healthy and vigorous, instead of worn-out and weak. Bright eyes, clear skin, rosy cheeks—you wouldn't think it was the same woman, and it's all due to the use of a few bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. All druggists, grocers or liquid. Tablets 9c.

Danville, Ill.—"I am glad to tell that benefit I received from the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I was delicate and weak, had woman's trouble, and was hardly able to do any work. I could not cook and could not stand up long enough to do anything but wash a few dishes. I read in the papers so I bought six bottles and began using it. I gained readily so that my weight went up from 90 to 150 pounds. I have been well since and never have had to use any such medicine."—Mrs. Kate Just, 206 Bryan Ave.

less, which might have been expressed in few words, but being of a sympathetic turn of mind I thought probably he had nothing more profitable wherewith to fill his paper. Before proceeding further I will give the names of those who figure most conspicuously in this lengthy epistle: James Bond and his grandson Eryle B. Laverick and W. N. Luttrell, editor and publisher of aforesaid paper, who as a member of the board of directors of the Franklin high school acts as its spokesman, of which school Eryle B. Laverick was a pupil in the senior class and expected to graduate and receive a diploma. The question at issue is simply this, the giving of a diploma or not to the above mentioned boy. The decision of a majority of the board was that the boy was not entitled to it. I did question the justness of the decision and supposed the controversy was dropped. Their decision has not hurt the boy. He carries his head more by far than a diploma given by the Franklin high school would have given him credit for. Available at all times, the study the boy willfully failed in was German, but W. N. failed to state the study—German—I presume willfully failed to state. "Franklin has been my post office for forty-four years. My charge is established. This is the first time I ever had to defend it from wrong doing."

Before going further I wish to make a few preliminary remarks. Taking it for granted that the paper this appears in has a far wider circulation than the Franklin Times, it requires me to go more fully into details and be more explicit so that my friends and other readers living at a distance may fully understand the subject. This boy, Eryle B. Laverick, on all occasions appeared very patriotic whenever the war was discussed in the home circle or among his schoolmates. He expressed his regret at not being old enough to join the colors and help lick the common tyrant, the Kaiser. Eryle B. Laverick is a boy highly esteemed by his schoolmates, especially those of the senior class with whom he was more intimately acquainted, looked upon as a leader in his class, over the top in all his studies but one, so the aforesaid editor and director tells us but failed to state in which study the boy failed. It appears his memory failed him and he forgot to mention the study he failed in. It was his German study. I can hardly think he forgot, being as his memory served him at every other point in his determination to have his way and let the people know he was a member of the aforesaid board, let the consequences to the boy be what it may and hurt the feelings of his widowed mother all he could. On the 20th of February, last, in his class session before noon his German teacher told him he had to do better in his German study or he would not graduate or words to that effect. It was no trouble for him to master his studies, as his teachers and his classmates know, but he had no use for anything German, graduate or not, no German for him. The climax came—he threw down his book and left his class. He had no use for the German language. He is a boy of few words but as soon as his mind is fixed, he is determined to carry it out or die in the attempt—an admiral or a traitor for a soldier. He came home as usual at the noon hour, never mentioned his intentions for fear of frustration, kissed his mother twice, left as we thought for school, boarded the 4 p. m. train for Jacksonville, went to Springfield the same evening, up bright and early the next morning, enlisted in the aviation service, the only part he was old enough to enter; passed a physical examination, not quite 18 years old, straight as an arrow the officer remarked you are the kind of a boy the government wants more of, and sent him off to Jefferson Barracks the same evening. At Jefferson Barracks he was made an orderly, transferred to Georgia, then to New Jersey, within six weeks left for France. I may say almost everyone in Franklin and vicinity knew of it and asked about it and when his graduation and diploma became the subject it was the unanimous opinion that he should be given his diploma, being as the study of the German language was being put out of schools and universities, the boy was entitled to it. In conversation with past and present members of the school boards in such instances they have given it. The verdict of every loyal citizen of the town when approached was taking all things into consideration the boy was entitled to his faithfully earned diploma. I understand the giving of diplomas is left entirely to the discretion of the directors and W. N. knew it and appeared determined to act upon it. I never asked him to give the boy a diploma. I never thought they were worth the asking. My daughter saw him on the morning of the day the diplomas were given in the evening, and his decision appeared fixed—he was not entitled to it. This was before he saw Hon. F. G. Blair.

Notice what he says: "I am acting upon the advice of Hon. F. G. Blair," when his decision was given my daughter before seeing him. If I understand rightly the giving of diplomas is left entirely to the discretion of the board, not to the county or state superintendents. I saw W. N. in the evening and asked him for his reasons for not wishing to give the boy a diploma. He did not ask him to give it nor did I try to enforce it with a dollar club. I would not have condescended to ask him if I had been assured beforehand of getting it.

In answer to my question for his reason, he spoke of units. Some schools requiring 15, but Franklin 16, the German language I suppose. The boy had fifteen and he would lose the diploma rather than learn German, if going to fight and perhaps lose his life for his country, his home and the homes of his neighbors', including W. N. Luttrell's and J. B. Perkins, is not worth more than learning German, (be it so). He further said, "Mr. Bond, I do not understand how a man professing to be a Christian as you do could ask me to sign a thing that is wrong." He appeared to me to be very sanctimoniously religious of a sudden. My thoughts for the moment were he must have very recently been under the convicting and convincing power of Rev. Billy Sunday.

He also told me certain townspeople had told him I kept the boy in the field when he should have been studying, but he would not tell me the names of those persons. I refute the accusation and defy him or them to prove the assertion. The absurdity of the assertion is seen at a glance. Pray when did he get his other studies. Field or no field he was over the top in all but German but in every community, Franklin not excepted, there is a class of undesirable citizens, stationary hoboos, town loafers. I presume it was from such he got his information, if so we may form an opinion who his associates are. I will now take a cursory glance through his lengthy epistle. His first few sentences is at what happened after all the others and should have been last. It speaks of his feelings when thinking of past achievements, namely how thankful he felt for the privilege of serving as a private in the Red Cross campaign and seeing what a lot of liberal, big hearted and broad minded people we have in this community. Speaking of liberality reminds me of his audacity in asking me how much I gave to the Red Cross. I presume he knew. I told him twenty-five dollars on both occasions. He said he thought I ought to have given one hundred. I do not know how he figured it, probably from five to twenty per cent of his own gift, or probably very trivial in comparison to his. I happened to enter his sanctum that very morning and can vouch for his feelings as he expressed them, they being very visible in his visage. I also noticed a sudden change, everything seemed dark, the sun passed under a cloud, the skies darkened, his visage changed to one of melancholy. (We lost a subscriber). He also stated I asked him to remove my name from his subscription list because he would not sign his name to something wrong, that is, in giving the boy a diploma. This is where he departs from the truth. He scandalized my character in making the assertion. He also speaks of penalizing. As I remarked before I never asked W. N. to give the boy a diploma. The sun passing under a cloud and the skies being darkened seems to have darkened his memory on that eventful morning. Having been a subscriber to the paper a number of years and expecting to be as long as I lived, having been the means of procuring him subscribers and in many other little ways helped him. He also expressed his sympathy for me. I am not nor was not soliciting sympathy, neither verbal, heartless, and more especially not hypocritical. Then notice his childish prattle about units. He says the boy had 15 but Franklin required 16, the German study included, and if he gave it to the boy with 14 or 13 he would deny the boy with 14 or 13. He gave me the boy with 14 or 13 means the boy with one or we will say two as he speaks of it as units. What an absurd remark. The average man would have considered it an honor to have had the privilege to give it to a thousand and such boys whose only failure was not studying the German language, which is being eliminated from other schools and universities.

Then notice the sarcastical remarks he made about using the dollar mark as a club. He has won the victory, what is the use of a club to the vanquished. He says I told him to take my name off his list because he would not sign something wrong. I suppose this is where he considers I used the dollar club. This assertion is wrong. I gave my daughter his final decision on the morning of the day the diplomas were given in the evening. I entered his sanctum the very morning he was rejoicing over the glorious achievements the Red Cross drive, the high school victory and numerous other accomplishments in which he had the privilege of being put out of schools and universities, what a lot of big hearted and liberal, broad minded people we have in the community. I notice he does not class himself as one of those big hearted, broad minded people. He only saw them. He missed an opportunity of being one of them. It was then I asked him if my subscription had expired. He said it had with the last issue. I told him to send it any more. I did not wish to be weekly reminded of what I consider such despicable acts. It seems providential that a three year subscription should end at the very nick of time. We will class it with his concluding remark: God was watching over him. He begins and ends his epistle much after the manner of the kaiser who after enumerating his contemptible, mean and hellish acts, ascribes it to the hand of God.

This boy, Eryle B. Laverick, wears five rings attached yearly pinned to the lapel of his coat, which represents five years of continuous weekly attendance at the Canon City, Colo., M. E. Sunday school. Who can beat it? His widowed mother was and has been for years looking forward to the time when he would graduate and his receiving a diploma so she may hang it beside that of his deceased father's. She fully anticipated receiving it. When told of the board's decision that they would not give him his well deserved diploma. Surely it cannot be because he would not learn the German language? Is that the decision of the board for the protection of whose homes he has gone to fight and perhaps to lose his life? Oh, how inhuman.

Her hopes are blasted. If she does not die of a broken heart, which appears likely, her days are shortened to gratify the caprice of an individual.

But this poor woman is made to suffer and sorrow until death ends it, and what will the boy think of it? Will it put more vim into his fighting? It is the verdict of the Franklin school board. Is it of the county? Is it of the state? Is it of the nation? Is it of our noble president? I think not. W. N. accuses me of wrong doing. Also with asking him to do something wrong, to fit in with my personal desires. A case of slander. Also with trying to ride roughshod over established rules and with the dollar mark for a club. Notice how sore he feels over that dollar mark. He has been in the saddle throughout with his egotistic club. I never asked him to give the boy a diploma. The thought is disgusting. We read in the Book of Books, charity covereth a multitude of sins. What an opportunity W. N. and the president of the board missed of covering up a multitude of sins. If either of them has not needed it up to the present it would be a good thing to keep on hand for future use if needed. Notice the sarcastic manner he finishes his epistle. He, W. N., feels sorry for me, because I love my grandson and am walking down the shady side of the hills of life.

Just liste nto him. May the boy be spared to him and the mother whose heart is aching, whose heart W. N. has made to ache. If he should come back as W. N. says may he be spared to, and I hope he may, after having seen Hunism displayed on the innocent, he may more than likely be imbued with some of those Hunish instincts one of which he may use to express his indignation at W. N. in the refusing of giving a diploma, the refusing of which is giving so much sorrow and pain to his mother. Notice he says he expected to lose subscriptions owing to it. He expected it before it happened. His conscience appears to have accused him.

DISTRESS OF GERMAN WAR SUFFERERS

NO BOLSHIEVIKI IN CENTRAL SIBERIA

Tokio, May.—Bolshevism as it exists in Southern Russia does not seem to have penetrated Eastern Siberia, in the opinion of Dr. H. Q. E. Thompson, who has just arrived with the Anglo Russian Hospital unit.

In Vladivostok he saw officers in uniform, who they had been stripped of their shoulder straps. In Ukraine an officer's uniform means sure death, he said. Vladivostok and Harbin seemed very quiet after the turbulent cities of the South. There seemed to be no excitement due to the presence of Allied warships in the harbor. All nationals mixed quite freely and there seemed to be no more antagonistic feeling toward the Japanese than toward others.

Strive To Have Healthy Skin

Next time you are in a gathering of women note the different conditions apparent in complexion. You will see some with blackheads, some dry and rough, some smooth and greasy, some streaked with rouge, some streaked with heavy metallic powder and once in a while you will see one that is a demonstration of intelligence from every point of view. The color is rosy, the skin is clear and smooth, the pores are small and open, the powder does not show on the firm vigorous skin. Every woman can have a good complexion if she will only use a little discretion. If you would acquire real beauty, the beauty of perfect health, you must replenish your worn-out nerves with leithin. Nature's own nerve restorer, and put into your blood the invigorating iron which Nature intended it to have for health. In most of the modern foods there are other vitalizing elements have been largely eliminated. Yet to be healthy and beautiful the system must have them. They are found in Bio-feren, not only in proper proportions to restore weakened vitality but in such form as the system can best assimilate them. Iron, leithin and leithin are the three elements which Bio-feren contains. A treatment of leithin and iron increases the appetite, aids nutrition and invigorates the patient. Bio-feren is the perfect form in which iron and leithin are taken—no liquid

GERMAN BELITTLES U. S. WAR EFFORTS

In Speech in Reichstag German Minister of Navy Says American U-Boat Chasers are a Failure. Admits Successes in Defensive Measures.

New York, June. — American participation in the war, in the fight against German submarines and in the ship-building program were belittled by Vice Admiral von Capelle, German minister of the navy, in his speech in the Reichstag a few weeks ago, as reported by German newspapers received here.

"The military help of America in the first year of the war was very little regarding troops and airplanes," declared von Capelle. "The expectation of our enemies has been greatly disappointed. If America later wants to maintain half a million troops in France it will need permanently a freight space (in steam ships) of about 2,000,000 tons, which again would be depreciated from the service of supplying her allies."

"According to American and British statements, the participation of such a large army is no longer involved in this campaign."

"In order to carry out the gigantic American program of ship-building, the shipyards must first be built in 1917. America, following all her huge promises, built 750,000 gross tons of sea-going ships. The large merchant fleet which America has ordered is not being built for the war but in order to take the place of England as the world's shipper after the war when the ships will have been completed."

Discussing the economic situation created by America's entrance into the war, von Capelle pointed out that the United States was the most important source of supplies for the entente nations but, he added: "Owing to the tremendous armament program of President Wilson, such economic difficulties have developed that America, the land of export, must now begin to ration herself instead, as had been hoped, to aid the entente in increasing measures. All in all, it can be said that the economic difficulties of our enemies have been increased by America's entrance into the war."

In reply to charges that the German submarine-building program was not progressing as rapidly as it should, von Capelle admitted that Germany's enemies had attained certain success in their defensive measures against the U-boats. "But," he added, "they have at no time affected the U-boat warfare in any way decisive and, according to foresight, will not be able to do so in the future."

"The American U-boat chasers over which much fuss has been made, are a failure. The convoy system which gives the ships a certain protection on the other hand has great disadvantages. There is not a day in which one or several ships are not shot out of convoys."

ENGLAND INCREASES RATE OF POSTAGE
London, April 23.—Until the new budget put a war tax on mail this country had been sending letters for a penny—two American cents—for seventy-eight years. Not until 1870 was the postcard introduced. It has required a half-penny stamp, now raised to a penny, for inland delivery.

Papers here express the belief that the increased postal charges will cause more post cards to be used. In announcing the increase of half a penny for letter postage, the chancellor of the exchequer pointed out that the new rate had been fixed by all the big countries of the world.

Winona, Minn.—"I suffered for more than a year from nervousness, and was so bad I could not rest at night—would be awake and walk in the morning. I read about Lydia E. ## RED CROSS AIDS ITALIAN REFUGEES America Sends Relief to Section Filled With Refugees From Regions Invaded by Teutonic Troops.

Headquarters Italian Army, June. — (Correspondence of the Associated Press.) Arrival of relief from America thru the Red Cross agents behind the Italian front along the Piave River, which section is filled with refugees from the regions invaded by Teutonic troops, is greeted with evidences of fervent gratitude and jubilation. This is true not only because of the actual gifts in money, food and clothing but because it signifies to the Italians the fact that America is standing behind them in their long conflict with the Austrian invaders.

The aged priest at Castello di Godega was so overcome by the unexpected donations from America that he threw up his arms, knelt in prayer and exclaimed, "It is a gift direct from heaven."

Wherever the Red Cross workers have distributed their relief, the Mayor and Local Committee directed the succored families of that commune to write to the soldiers at the front and tell them what America has done. The work of the Americans was extolled and the people were told that the United States was thus cooperating in close and practical accord with Italy.

In some cases huge posters have appeared on the town walls with proclamation by the mayor announcing what America was doing.

The misery which prevails among the refugees in the provinces of Treviso, Venetia and Padua is most distressing. Stopping at the little town of Riese, in a tour of this section, there was a chance to see one of these communities of refugees in all its misery. It is a strange community, which has migrated as a whole from its former home at Vidor, now held by the enemy, to its present habitation of Riese. Vidor is the village on the east bank of the Piave which was occupied by General von Below and his German troops, and when they came these townspeople, with only the clothes on their backs and a few household belongings, fled across the Piave and settled down here. Most of the refugees have scattered all over Italy, but this is one of the few towns that has held together in its flight.

The parish priest led the way as the Red Cross workers went on a round of inspection to see just how these people were living. The mayor and the parish priest are usually consulted on this work, the latter because he is in touch with all the troubles. Most of the people are religious, but even those who are not get religious when they are in trouble, and everyone is in trouble here. They all knew him and he made his way thru crowds of ragged children and the choked alleys of what would have been a concentration camp if it had been organized, but being unorganized was only a vast hive of refugees in their misery.

In one room about fifteen feet square 25 people were sleeping on straw strewn over the earthen floor. The place was stuffed with soiled garments, the pitiful remnants of what these occupants possessed and reeked with vilest. Across the corner there was a small room where thirteen were sleeping, and in another eight all huddled together on the straw, women, children, babies and their rags. All the outhouses, barns, grain lofts, were utilized for sleeping quarters. There were few men, for all the men have gone to the war, except the very old and very young.

Many of the women were very old, with wizened hungry faces like witches. A number of the women carried babies, and all of them were trailed by large broods of children. All the people had lost everything. Their clothes were in rags. Underclothes and stockings had long ago disappeared. Even the consolation of work was denied to these people, for there was nothing for them to do here, and they stood about with their crowds of children and babies, fighting to keep off hunger and typhoid, and helpless in their misery.

As a result of the inspection the Red Cross has started the work of ameliorating this condition, providing suitable sleeping quarters, with sanitation and the nucleus of a hospital for the growing sicklist.

The secretary of the Loria municipality said all the borins there were fairly packed with people, thirty or more to every barn, filling the stalls and lofts. The mayor of Castello di Godega said the spirit of the farm people was showing remarkable fortitude in spite of the troubles they were enduring. "They are going to carry on their May planting as usual," he said, "gathering the spring clover and then putting in corn."

SEES NEED OF MORE NATIONAL KITCHENS

London, June. — Opening a national kitchen at Stoke Newington, Mr. Clynnes, a Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Food, said there were not enough of these institutions in existence.

"The best meals I have had of late have been those obtained under such conditions as in this building where food is prepared under sanitary conditions, and where you are certain there is no motive for personal gain or profit," he said.

NO PEACE AT ANY PRICE FOR RUSSIA

Noted Russian Reformer Declares Belief That This Is What People Want is Mistake.

Stockholm, June. — (Correspondence of The Associated Press.) — Belief that the people of Russia want, above all things, peace at any price, is a mistake, asserts Vladimir Bourtsieff, a noted Russian former revolutionary and newspaper man who has arrived here from Finland.

"The Bolsheviks threaten the total destruction of Russia," said Bourtsieff to a writer in the Dagbladet. "They attained power by the help of the Germans and by the same means are maintained in power. Bolshevism is a danger not only for Russia but for the whole world and it is necessary that the supporters of its doctrines should be thoroughly defeated. Russia cannot be saved so long as the Bolsheviks are in control. I am convinced they can be conquered and I hope it will not be long before they are suppressed."

What Russia needs is a government composed of Democrats and Cadets (Constitutional Democrats) with a man like Korniloff or Milyukoff at its head. The idea that the land above all things wants peace at any price is a mistake. This would be made plain under another government which, unlike the present, was not dependent on German support."

Bourtsieff at the beginning of the war was living in Paris as a refugee. He immediately returned to Russia to offer his services to the government against Germany. He was arrested the moment he reached Russian soil and sent to Siberia. After a year there he was released on the intercession of President Poincare of France. He returned to Petrograd where he opposed the Bolsheviks. When the revolution broke out he was imprisoned in the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul. After four months imprisonment he escaped and reached Helsingfors whence he came to Sweden.

REMOVE SHRAPNEL FROM MAN'S HEART

London, June. — A piece of shrapnel weighing one-seventh of an ounce has been extracted from the anterior wall of the heart of an English soldier at a hospital here. The patient was warned that the operation might kill him. When he came out from the influence of the anaesthetic, he said that he felt like a new man.

PORTO RICO INVESTS IN LIBERTY BONDS

San Juan, Porto Rico, June. — Six million dollars in subscriptions to the three Liberty Loans is, in round figures, Porto Rico's investment of money in the war.

On the first loan approximately $700,000 was subscribed in the island while nearly all of the large subscriptions were placed direct in the United States. Subscriptions of sugar companies to the first loan, placed in the states, amounted to close to a half million dollars, one subscription alone having been $200,000. Total subscriptions in the island to the second loan were $1,986,000, while to the third loan the total amount subscribed the number of subscribers also increased. The Department of Finance reports 4,877 subscribers to the second loan and 8,714 to the third.

In Trust, (c): After the death of my said son, Homer L. Wood, and the death or remarriage of his present wife and the arrival of my said grandson, John Iven Wood, at the age of twenty three (23) years, it is my will that my Trustee shall cause a valuation to be placed upon said real estate by three disinterested persons, and my said Trustee, or his successor or successors in trust, shall convey said real estate to my grandson, John Iven Wood, son of Homer L. and Bessie Reeve Wood, when he shall have attained said age of 23 years, and my said grandson, John Iven Wood, shall pay to the remaining children of my said son, Homer L. Wood and Bessie Reeve Wood, a sum equal to what would have been their distributive shares in said real estate had my said son, Homer L. Wood, owned the same and died intestate, leaving him no wife surviving; which said payment shall be made within five (5) years from the making of such deed, and such deed shall reserve a lien upon said lands to secure the payments aforesaid.

In Trust, (d): In case of the death of said John Iven Wood before reaching the age of twenty three (23) years, then my said Trustee, or his successor in trust, shall sell and convey said premises on the best terms obtainable, in his judgment, and divide the proceeds equally between the children of said Homer L. Wood and Bessie Reeve Wood, the child or children of any deceased child to take their parent's share.

IX. Subject to the life estate of my said wife, Mary E. Wood, I give, devise and bequeath to my brother, Richard S. Wood, as Trustee, and to his successor or successors in trust, the following described real estate to-wit:—

The South West quarter of the South East quarter of Section Nine (9); Thirty (30) acres off of the South side of the North West quarter of the South East quarter of Section Nine (9); Also, thirty (30) acres off of the South side of the North West quarter of the South West quarter of Section Nine (9); in Township Fourteen (14) North and Range Nine (9) West of the Third Principal Meridian.

Also, a tract of land in Section Thirty Five (35), Township Fifteen (15) North and Range Ten (10) West of the Third Principal Meridian, in Morgan County, Illinois, to-wit: The North West quarter of the South West quarter of Section Thirty Five (35), and all that part of the North East quarter of the South West quarter of Section Thirty Five (35) lying South of the Vandalia Road running thru said quarter-quarter Section, containing fifty two and one-half (52 1/2) acres, more or less.

And I also give, devise and bequeath unto my said Trustee,

Richard S. Wood, or his successor or successors in trust, the sum of Six Thousand, Nine Hundred and Seventy Dollars ($6,970.00) to be paid to my said Trustee by my daughter, Elizabeth Hardwick, as hereinafter provided;

In Trust, (a): To hold said real estate, keep the same in good tenantable condition, keep the buildings thereon and fences in good repair, pay all taxes and other just charges against said real estate or any fund arising therefrom, and to pay the net proceeds thereof to my grandson, Truman Gibson, and to my granddaughter, Grace Gibson, in equal parts also, to loan the money above mentioned at the best rate obtainable for good security; and also to pay the net income of said money to my said grandchildren, Truman Gibson and Grace Gibson, in equal parts, for and during their natural lives.

In Trust, (b): Should either of my said grandchildren, Truman Gibson or Grace Gibson, die, then it is my will that the net income of said real estate and of the fund above mentioned shall be paid to the survivor of them for and during his or her natural life.

In Trust, (c): If my said grandchildren, Truman Gibson and Grace Gibson, or either of them, shall die, leaving no child or children or descendants thereof, then it is my will that the interest of such grandchild dying without issue shall revert and become a part of the residuum of my estate and be divided as hereinafter provided.

In Trust, (d): If my said grandson, Truman Gibson, at the time of his death, have a child or children, or descendants thereof, him surviving, then it is my will that my Trustee shall convert, as nearly as possible, one-half of his said real estate into cash and take one-half of said cash fund and divide the same equally between the children of said Truman Gibson, or his descendants, share and share alike, the children of any deceased parent taking the parent's part, in equal shares.

In Trust, (e): If my granddaughter, Grace Gibson, shall die leaving her surviving a child or children, or descendants thereof, then it is my will that my Trustee shall convert, as nearly as possible, one-half of said real estate into cash, and pay the same, together with one-half of the cash fund as herein provided for, to the children of said Grace Gibson her surviving, in equal shares, the child or children of any child then deceased taking the parent's share.

X. It is my will, that in renting the real estate herein devised to my Trustee, each Trustee shall give the preference to the person for whom he is acting as Trustee if such child or grandchild desires to lease the land which said Trustee is holding in trust for him or her, and desires to cultivate the same or live upon the same, said Trustee shall lease the same to them.

It is further my will, that my Trustee shall act in harmony with those for whom he is acting as Trustee, so far as practicable, and if, for any reason, there shall be a conflict whereby my said Trustee and any one for whom he is acting cannot act in harmony and for the best interests of the trusts, I request that my Trustee shall resign the trust for such person; and in case of such resignation, it is my desire that the person for whom said trust is made and my said Trustee shall agree upon some person who shall by the Circuit Court of Morgan County, Illinois, be appointed Trustee for such beneficiary.

It is further my will, that said Trustee shall promptly make an annual accounting to the persons for whom he is acting as Trustee, and shall annually file his report with the Circuit Court of Morgan County, Illinois, showing all of his transactions as such Trustee.

XI. I furthermore empower my said Trustee and his successor or successors in trust, that if in his judgment it will be better for the trust and the persons affected thereby, that any part of said estate should be sold, that he may, by obtaining the written request of such adult person or persons, sell the same and reinvest the proceeds thereof, either in real estate in Morgan County, Illinois, or in Government bonds, or loan the funds on real estate at not more than sixty (60) per cent of the cash value of such real estate; and in case of the sale of any tract of land, it is my will that either my sons or daughters, or their descendants, whose lands adjoin the land desired to be sold, shall be given an opportunity to purchase the same before it is sold to any other person.

XII. I will, devise and bequeath to Truman Gibson and Grace Gibson any interest which I may have by virtue of the conveyance to me by Richard Y. Gibson of his life estate in a certain part of land in Section Thirty Five (35), Township Fifteen (15) North and Range Ten (10) West of the Third Principal Meridian, by deed recorded at page 115 of Deed Records 82 of the Records of Morgan County, Illinois.

XIII. Subject to the life estate of my said wife, Mary E. Wood, I give, devise and bequeath all of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate to my brother, Richard S. Wood, as Trustee, and to his successor or successors in trust, upon the trusts and conditions following:

In Trust, (a): That my Trustee shall, from time to time, as he comes into possession and control thereof, convert all of said residue of my estate into cash, whether the same be real, personal or mixed; and I give to my said Trustee, and to his successor or successors in trust, full power to sell and convey any real estate of which I may die seized, which at any time shall become a part of the residue as hereinafter provided, by good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance.

In Trust, (b): It is my will that the fund constituting the residuum of my estate shall be loaned to the best advantage possible by my Trustee, or his successor or successor in trust, and the income shall be added to the principal and the total amount both of principal and interest shall be divided into six equal parts, and on the 24th of December, as nearly as possible, of each year when there shall be any residue for distribution, he shall pay to my son Charles Wood one-sixth thereof; to my daughter Minnie Curry one-sixth thereof; to my son Arthur Wood one-sixth thereof; to my daughter Elizabeth Hardwick one-sixth thereof; and to my son Homer L. Wood one-sixth thereof; and to my granddaughter Grace Gibson one-half of one-sixth thereof.

In Trust, (c): In the event of the death of either of my children or grandchildren above named before any annual distribution herein provided for, then the divisions above provided for shall be made to their surviving child or children, the child or children of any deceased child or grandchild taking the parent's part, in equal shares.

In Trust, (d): In the event that either of my children or grandchildren above named shall die leaving no child or children, or descendants thereof surviving, then such bequest shall lapse and the fund herein provided for shall be distributed among the other beneficiaries in this division of my will named, and the proportions herein named to be increased pro rata.

XIV. It has been my effort to divide my estate equally between my children. I have taken into account all advancements which I have made to my children up to this time, which I desire to charge them with, and have taken the same into consideration in this distribution; and I hereby cancel all charges of every kind and character which I have against any of my children, whether it be in the form of book account, note or other obligation, bearing date prior to the date of this Will.

I hereby nominate and appoint my son-in-law, Albert A. Curry, and my brother, Richard S. Wood, Executors of this my Last Will and Testament.

Dated at Jacksonville, Illinois, this 5th day of February, A. D. 1918.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC NOTES

Miss Lazelle, of the College of Music Faculty, is to sing at the commencement of the Springfield High School next week.

On Friday of this week there was a demonstration of the class work in voice which has been carried on in Springfield High School under Miss Lazelle's direction.

Miss Clara Moore, of the College of Music Faculty, will study during the summer with Leon Sammetini.

Miss Edith Robinson will study this summer in Chicago with Rudolph Renter.

On Saturday afternoon, the first of June, a very interesting demonstration was given of the children's work in music of Illinois Woman's College; from two to three the Faeton class for primaries gave a demonstration of its work, and from three to four Miss Hay's class in piano technique; at four o'clock Miss Winifred Sale gave her graduating program in organ. Miss Sale has been a student with Mr. Stearns for four years and in a brilliant and telling program showed that the time has been spent to splendid advantage.
